

Washington County Virginia:

Reel 167:

Jno. M. Caywood & wife vs Jno. D. Dishman:

Complaint of Jno. M. Cawood & Lucinda his wife, formerly Lucinda Dishman...

Wm. Dishman will admitted to probate 3 May 1875.. to Jno. D. Dishman, son and to Susan E. Dishman his granddaughter had 4 living children at death, sd. Jno. D., (blank) Price, formerly (blank) Dishman, (blank) Worley, formerly (blank) Dishman and your oratrix, Lucinda Caywood 1879..

John Dishman was married on 11 Nov 1843. He was in 26th year. Except about 2 years..lived with testator, his father all his lifetime.. father, Wm. Dishman died 29 Apr 1875, just 5 years lacking one day from date of testators will... (testimony of John D. Dishman)

When he married family consisted of testator, wife (of Wm.), who was sd. respondents mother, and testators son, Wm. Dishman who was then about 21 years of age, was an invalid and continued such to be to his death in 1866... Testator's wife died 08 Jan 1865 female respondent would shew that she is daughter of her co-respondent. At her grandmothers death, whose name she bears, she was about 6 years old; her grandfather took her to stay with him. This she continued to do down to his death... (statement of Susan E. Dishman)

25 Apr 1879 Will of John Dishman recorded... son John, all real estate after death to his widow then to children grand daughter, Susan E. Dishman bed she is now occupying.. 30 Apr 1879 /w/ Henry C. White; James T. Price 03 May 1875, proved.

Notes transcribed from microfilm record by Kim Cawood Basingthwaite