

Deaths.

Miss Jane Hamilton died yesterday evening at her home, the residence of her brother in law, Major E. H. Janney, near Haymarket, Prince William county, after a long illness. She was well-known in this city where she had many friends who will regret to learn of her death. Her remains will be interred in Ivy Hill cemetery on Monday next upon the arrival of the Manassas train.

Mrs. Nora Story died at her home, 725 Jefferson street, on Thursday evening.

Mr. Bernard Fegan, an old and well-known resident, died at his home, 709 Wolfe street, this morning. The deceased was 87 years old. He leaves several children. Mr. Fegan was born in Ireland. He was a brother of the late John Fegan, who had at one time conducted the distillery near this city.

Mrs. James Locraft, who is well-known in this city, died last night at Garfield Hospital in Washington, after a short illness. Mrs. Locraft, was the daughter of the late William Harvey, who up to the time of his death was manager of Harvey's restaurant in Washington. The deceased is survived by her husband and one child.

Mrs. Mary J. Dishman, mother of Mr. S. R. Dishman, died Thursday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Boughton, in Essex county.

The remains of the late John Patten were shipped this morning by Demaine & Son to Nokesville, near which place the interment will take place.

Clipped By:

kdishman

Sun, Jan 8, 2017