

Routes 2, Fairfax, Va.

Feb. 1, 1916.

My dear Roland:

Just after your
"leaves" of Jan 15 was rec'd a memory of my boyhood returned to me. William D., Funtleroy, James, and Robert Dickman had a younger brother nicknamed <sup>George's slaughter</sup> "Took" who, when the civil war began disappeared, and so far as I know was never heard from. He was supposed to have considerable money and it was thought he was killed for his money. Now his name may or may not have been Slaughter.
Mrs. Rollins can find out for you or I am sure Norman Olive of Index, King Geo Co., Va. who lives on the old Dickman farm, can help you.

I am glad to have good news of you all. With kind regards and best wishes for your success,

Very truly yours,

B. G. Clarke.
